PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Dear WVEA Member:

The WVEA is proud to once again provide you with this Professional Development Catalog. The WVEA staff has actively participated in state and national training events to increase their skills in order to assist you with your professional development needs. In addition, many of our WVEA leaders have also participated in various workshops and are willing to assist members in any way they can.

I urge you to share this catalog with your peers, your Faculty Senate, your principal and others in your building. This catalog is an excellent source of trainings and presentations for members in your school and/or county.

The following is a sample of presentations available in various media forms by the WVEA staff. We have listed those that are frequently requested. If you would like to schedule one of these presentations; or if you have a specific topic in which you are interested, please contact your Organizational Development Specialist (UniServ) and advise her/him of your needs. Every effort will be made to accommodate your request.

Finally, it is strongly suggested you plan your training activities well in advance of your program date. Thirty days notice is suggested. You need to be flexible in your scheduling since not every program is done by every staff person or leader.

It is our intent to continually update and expand this catalog so that it will become an increasingly valuable resource for you. We hope that you and your colleagues take advantage of these opportunities to enhance and update your expertise on the topics provided.

PROFESSIONAL GROWTH

Transitioning to Middle School

This presentation provides assistance to parents/guardians whose children will be navigating the transition to middle school. Information and materials provided will assist parents/guardians in communicating with their “tween” during this phase of their school experience.

Healthy School Environment

This session is designed to increase your awareness of issues surrounding a safe school environment. Participants will learn how to respond to HIV and AIDS issues as well as increase awareness in regard to indoor air quality issues.

Creating Family-School-Community Partnerships

During this training, participants create a positive groundwork for partnerships, learn how to improve communication among all stakeholders, gain insight into how to work with families from diverse cultures, and create a climate to implement meaningful partnerships.

This major federal reform will have a lasting impact on education in our nation for years to come. Find out the latest updates regarding the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) how the legislation is being interpreted by the U.S. Department of Education and how it impacts schools in our state as outlined in WVDE policies.

Child Abuse and Harassment

The session will focus on child abuse laws related to West Virginia public schools. There will be discussions related to the employee as a witness/reporter or as the accused perpetrator. Additionally, the program will discuss state law and policy related to harassment and employee obligations to report and investigate harassment allegations.

Effective Grant Writing

Filled with useful ideas and checklists to help the beginning grant writer get organized and be successful, this session will focus on the resources and grants available to educators. This session will also highlight WVEA’s grant awarding foundation—West Virginia Foundation for the Improvement of Education (WVFIE).

Stress and Time Management

Learn how to turn chaos into calm. Develop new time management skills that will benefit your professional and personal life. Rediscover a healthier you as you break the old patterns of being stressed and over-worked and finding no time for yourself. This workshop does provide some hands-on demonstration and role-playing.

Anger Management

This session will examine the principal reasons of why we become angry and how to let go of that anger. In addition, participants will learn to recognize the stages of anger and how to stop negative reactions before they become aggression, not only in themselves, but also in others. Other topics include the body’s reaction to anger and how to survive the anger using different techniques without endangering yourself or others.

Team Building Essentials

In this hands-on workshop, you will learn what it takes to create a positive school climate and the positive traits that are necessary in every team member. Find out how group norms, site-based management, personality traits and communication skills assist team members in their professional roles as educators.

National Board Certification®

In this session, participants will discover how this voluntary certification can assist in their professional growth and improve student learning. Interested teachers will find out how to apply for the process and resources available.

School Technology and You

Technology use is common for all of us in this day and age. Employees’ use of technology has sometimes put them at risk of lawsuits or employer discipline. This session will explore ways to protect you against unwanted actions as a result of technology use. The session will explore acceptable use policies of school computers as well as communication with students.

Dealing with Difficult People

Would you like guidance in dealing with people that are confrontational, blame others, are negative or always have all the answers? This presentation will provide strategies for individuals that exhibit those behaviors and others that cause stress when we encounter them.

Evaluations

The workshop will focus on discussion of WVBE Policy 5310, the policy concerning employee evaluations. Examination of the evaluation process, the rating system and improvement plans will be covered as well.

Texting and Sexting

This presentation shows the widespread technology abuses among students, particularly cyber bullying and sexting, and the role teachers and schools have in monitoring/eliminating the problem. The discussion will include the role the teacher has in preventing bullying and harassment which may occur via use of technology as well as the mandatory reporting obligations of employees in WV Code and WVBE policies.

Helping Children in a Crisis Situation

This session will assist teachers with an understanding of how divorce, separation, death, and natural disasters affect children in negative ways. Participants will learn strategies to assist students who are affected.

How to Plan A Successful Parent Conference

This session provides tips for making those important parent-teacher conferences more comfortable and productive for the parent, teacher and student. Participants will also learn how to approach the most reluctant parents to participate in conferences.

Inclusion of Exceptional Students

Participants will learn how the IDEA regulations affect them in the classroom. Participants will review what is necessary for an IEP and will review procedures for handling students who need special medical attention. In addition, participants will review in depth the discipline rules for IDEA students.

WV Safe Schools

The WVEA has long been concerned about school safety and worked to assure our schools are safe places in which to learn and work. This training outlines your authority, resources and protections as school employees. Discussion will center on empowerment, special education discipline and alternative placements as well as updates on WVBE policies pertaining to harassment/violence.

I Can Do It!

This is a training that is tried and true with teachers across the nation. Participants will learn elements that will make a difference in their teaching and classroom management style. The extensive training is a very interactive presentation with practical hands-on information that participants will be able to use in the classroom the next day.

Certification

A look at WVBE Policy 5202 – Certification and Licensure. This session will explore the renewal process, “highly qualified” requirements, changes due to the reauthorization of IDEA and alternative certification routes. A brochure which offers a summary of the process is also available upon request.

Strategies for Closing the Achievement Gaps

Research-based classroom activities and educator self-reflections intended to engage culturally and linguistically diverse and/or low income students in their own learning. Concrete ways provided to examine and change curriculum and classroom practices.

New Teacher Basics – Rights and Responsibilities

You have your first teaching position – now what?! This presentation is for teachers new to the profession/state to learn what required policies, laws and regulations protect them and their students. Topics include your teaching certificate, evaluations, class size, planning periods, duty free lunch, employee/student codes of conduct, lesson plans and much more.

Legislation from the 2010 Session

This workshop will highlight the education bills that were passed in the 2010 Legislative Session. Bills discussed will include the major pieces of education legislation passed last year. This is a good training to keep abreast of mandated changes that occurred during the Legislative Session.

Bullying

This session will explore the growing issue of bullying in our schools. It will examine the problems associated with bullying and your responsibility in dealing with the issue as it relates to WVBE Policies 4373: Student Code of Conduct and 5902: Employee Code of Conduct.

Professional Interaction with Students

This workshop will focus on the appropriate and inappropriate relationships between students and school employees. Participants will develop the knowledge of interactions with students that could lead to accusations or legal action.

Professional Behavior

All school personnel employed by a county board of education whether employed on a regular full-time basis or otherwise are bound by the standards of conduct set in WVBE Policy 5902 (Employee Code of Conduct). The discussion of this policy will also include federal as well as West Virginia laws, policies, regulations and procedures with which all education employees must comply.

Dispensing Medications

With more and more students coming to school with medication needs, the issue of dispensing medication has come to the forefront. This session explores the rights and the roles of school employees (specifically ESP) in dispensing medication to students.

Specialized Health Care Procedures

This session will discuss the requirements of school personnel in dealing with students and their health needs within the school setting. Topics will include:

training requirements, liability issues, the role of the school nurse, the role of other school personnel and what health care procedures can and cannot be administered by someone other than the school nurse.

Testing Ethics

This session addresses special concerns regarding appropriate testing practices surrounding the administration of assessments related to the requirements mandated by the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) of 2002. Items discussed will include the Testing Code of Ethics that supplements the testing practices and procedures included in WVBE Policy 2340 (West Virginia Measures of Academic Progress) and the legal ramifications of noncompliance.

SPARKS

SPARKS is a program specifically designed for new employees (less than six years) with little or no experience in the Association. SPARKS is a three day program held on a weekend or during the summer. The program is designed to meet the needs of the participants and discuss the issues newer employees are facing. If you are interested in participating in the SPARKS program or would like to schedule one for your county, contact WVEA at 1.800.642.8261, ext. 211.
