This authorization is to remain in full force and effect until BANK has received written notification from me of its termination in such time and in such manner as to afford BANK a reasonable opportunity to act on it. A customer has the right to stop payment of a debit entry by notification to BANK prior to charging account. After account has been charged, a customer has the right to have the amount of the erroneous debit immediately credited to his account by BANK up to fifteen (15) days following issuance of account or forty-five (45) days after the charge, whichever occurs first. If I selected the bank draft method of payment, my signature below authorizes WVEA to initiate debit entries to my checking account and financial institution listed above, hereinafter BANK, to debit the same to such account. I will not hold my BANK liable for any erroneous debits made by the WVEA. I understand and acknowledge that termination of the authorization to BANK does not terminate my obligation to pay my membership dues and that membership be terminated only by written notice to WVEA as provided above.

In accordance with the WVEA Bylaws, a WVEA contribution of nine dollars ($9.00) for WVEA-PAC and one dollar ($1.00) for the Ballot Initiative Fund (BIF) have been assessed as part of the WVEA dues. WVEA-PAC uses contributions for political purposes, including making contributions to and expenditures on behalf of friends of public education who are candidates for state or local office. BIF uses contributions for advocating or opposing ballot issues. Only members, executive or administrative staff, and their family members may contribute to WVEA-PAC or BIF. WVEA-PAC and BIF may only accept contributions from U.S. citizens or permanent residents. Members have the right to refuse to contribute without any reprisal. Although WVEA-PAC requests an annual contribution of $9.00 and BIF requests $1.00, this is only a suggestion. A member may contribute more or less than the guidelines suggest, and WVEA and affiliates will not favor or disadvantage anyone for the amount of their contribution or their decision not to contribute. Any person wishing not to participate in WVEA-PAC or BIF, who wishes to contribute a different amount, or who is ineligible to contribute, should contact the WVEA office prior to November 1. Where objections are made, the member may choose to: (a) make one or both of the assessments to the West Virginia Foundation for Improvement of Education, or (b) receive a rebate of either one or both of the assessments. Where objections are made the assessments will not be used for political purposes or ballot initiative purposes.
